I'm making some style changes knowing what Minister usually prefers, will resend in a few minutes.

I would caution on saying this would also be for essential services. That would be the first confirmation and this letter could be leaked.

The language looks pretty risk managed so I'm fine with it. Could do some language tweaking for style purposes but I don't know that it's warranted here.

Thanks Boyan - I agree with you, but I don't think we should propose a cadence in the letter, we should keep a little flexibility.

Team, feel free to share your thoughts. I'd like to be able to send our comments back to the department around noon.

Best,
A.

Removing David.

2 thoughts:

- It is good that they differentiate it from the Ministers of Health table, but think that we can say a little more about how it would be different, i.e. coordinating procurement not just for the health system but also for essential services
- The first half of the letter makes it sound like it is a singular meeting and only halfway, we allude to the fact that this would be a regular meeting. Maybe we should even propose a cadence?

Hope this helps,
Boyan

Hello Anthony,

Please find attached the draft letter from Minister Anand to provincial and territorial representatives on COVID-19 procurement.

I'm also providing the agenda for Monday's Teleconference of FPT Deputy Heads of Public Works as requested.

Let me know if you have questions.

For clarification. I said we would like to send it Sunday, but we need a first draft today in order to get the Minister's feedback.

Hello Anthony,
I asked the department, but according to the notes I took during yesterday's call we said that the letter would be ready by Sunday. I will nonetheless try to have it for today.

Thank you,
David

Hello David,

According to our info, DPMO will be able to share the full list of designated provincial ministers before end of the day.

Are we still on track to see the first draft of the letter today?

Thank you and have a good weekend!

A.

Hi Anthony,

PCO IGA spoke with Minister Freeland's office and what they decided to do was have the DM of IGA write her colleagues to identify the Minister who should be on the roundtable. She has done so this afternoon, and we will get the responses over the weekend. The Minister can then write to them on Sunday or Monday. This was preferred to our Minister writing directly to the Premiers. If this does not work, then our Min and Min Freeland would write jointly to the Premiers.

Pleased to chat further.
