Our government has created a form that we invite you to share with Ms. Taschereau to complete.

In this way, all information and offers can be evaluated. This form can be found at the following link:

<https://buyandsell.gc.ca/supplying-goods-and-services-in-support-of-canada-s-response-to-covid-19>. After completing this form, please send me the reference number you will receive so that I can track your order with the department.

The KM 95 masks. One of my friends and business partners for 9 years has held 200,000 of these masks with his supplier in China. 500,000 have already left for the U.S. The Legault government is slow to come back with an answer about taking them... he has been in touch with Legault's political attaché since Thursday. If you can or if you want, we can talk about it. However, at 9:00 tonight he will have to take them or let them go to other countries. So that's it. He's got 1,000,000 disposable masks too. Just like a lot of people, I'm trying to help.

>Anyway, I don't know exactly what you're doing now, but I wanted to do my best for us before this equipment leaves for other countries.

>Maurice also has gowns and visors. I can certainly put you in touch with him if there is interest. I just talked to him after you e-mailed me. I'll see you later. You're an angel.
