Hello Ms. Kusnick,

Thank you very much for receiving your kind reply.

As a Canadian who has lived in Canada for 23 years, my family and I have always enjoyed the goodwill of Canadians. It is my wish and honour to be able to contribute to Canada when COVID-19 come. I also registered as a volunteer and am waiting to be called by the Ministry of Health.

Our company has established a base in Wuhan, which can guarantee the take-off, storage and logistics of the aircraft.

I'm here whenever Canada needs my service.

Hello Ms. Wang,

Thank you for your kind offer of support.

We are currently working with Air Canada among others to fly supplies from China to Canada. This partnership has been working well and we are confident that it will continue to do so.

Having said that, there may become necessary to employ additional carriers. So I will pass along your offer to our department for consideration. They will reach out to you if they feel that your charter flights could be of service.

Thank you again for your support.

Sincerely,

Chelsea Kusnick

Due to the needs of the Canadian government, and in an effort to help combat this epidemic, we can arrange the flights on a short note basis from (Shanghai) Pudong / Wuhan- to Canada non-stop flight route. The estimated first flight could be April 25th or sooner, or on as-needed basis. We strive to provide a professional and customized service, supported by our professional team, with a commitment to ensure safe and timely transport. In addition, our solution is very cost effective with major savings for your transport expenses. Kindly refer to the attached document.

I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Respectfully,
Maggie Wang.
