Hey – I am not aware of procuring media tubes separately. I believe they are a part of the test kits we are buying....Feel free to send a question into David for clarity.

Hi Chelsea,

I thought I should raise some new information. The main company I am promoting and partnering with in the US (Charm Sciences) has asked me to let you know they have contracted with FAEMA in the US to supply Media tubes for the safe and efficient transport of Covid-19 tests.

This could be an important logistical supply item that Canada should also take care to investigate regarding our sourcing capabilities and rigor.

Do you want to get more information?

Sincerely,

Hi Mike,

Jayne passed along your contact information. I would be happy to follow up on your request. Can you provide me with your reference number from the buyandsell.gc.ca portal and an estimate on how many of each product you could produce?

Let me know if you have any questions.

Best regards,

Chelsea Kusnick
