Dear Anthony,
Dear Jean-François,
Dear Caitlin,

I received this email from MP Gérard Deltell who, despite his political allegiance, has been a good friend since 20 years.

The reference mentioned by the member Deltell is very serious. Mr. Gagnon, the vice-president of an aviation company, is a very important stakeholder here in Quebec city.

I left her a message on her voice mail to find out more.

Can this offer be an opportunity for our government?

Thank you,

Jean-Luc

Dear Jean-Luc,s

Thanks again for your cooperation.

I mentioned it on FM 93 on the weekend and on Radio-Canada yesterday (story to be aired at a later date).

I am contacting you once again, this time about the medical equipment.

One of my friends, Dany Gagnon, VP of Chrono Aviation, is ready to pick up 3 million masks, and asked me who to contact.

I thought of you.

You can contact him at

Dany Gagnon Vice-president Chrono Aviation 418-529-4444 ext 2
dgagnon@chronoaviation.com

Many thanks.

G

P.S.: Here's a copy of his message:

Listen, I'm throwing this out to you. I have access to 3 million KN95 masks I can bring over on my Airbus 340 next week.

I don't know if the government is still looking for masks or if they have enough. I have no contacts, so I'm looping you in if you think someone might be interested.

We're already bringing over several million for a private customer, but I have an option for 3 million more.
