Let me nudge the province for an answer to the question I sent on Friday.

Not necessarily sure what we can do from our end, given the Province's role within the supply chain for distribution.

No this is the first instance I've seen of Sheila bringing forward a local issue.

We were speaking with her before on a procurement opportunity.

Caitlin:

Is this in line with the previous stuff brought forward by Sheila?

Dear Minister Anand, and Parliamentary Secretary Lightbound,

I have been contacted by Elizabeth Lai and purchasing officials at Humber Hospital who are desperately trying to source impervious and isolation gowns. Our company does not currently have access to gowns, and I know you have an overview of all medical purchasing across the country. Is it possible to give Humber some direction on where they might be able to source gowns.

Their normal purchasing channels have dried up. Thanks so much. Elizabeth Lai is copied on this email so please feel free to reply directly or pass along to the appropriate officials.

Thanks so much for all the work you are doing in trying to keep Canada safe.
