Hi Dove,

I don't think I sent this onto you last week-but do have an answer to this query about the delivery of the soul sourced contract for masks? I understand it's a ten year contract-so I would guess we'd get x number a year-do you know if we've already recieved them and when the first shipment would be recieved?

Brendan,
Correspondence on the government's procurement deal for masks. I believe she is asking because of this article below from the National Post.
