Hi Dove,
Sorry for the delay - yes tomorrow 5pm works.

Can you clarify what your role would be here if I connect you with the hospitals that need PPE? Do you have access to PPE? As it stands now, I have gotten tons of responses from almost every hospital across Canada that is on this COVID facebook group. All Toronto hospitals are organizing community PPE drives to get donations.

Thanks,
Hinal

Hey Dove and Hinal, wanted to introduce the two of you.

Hinal is part of a group with over 200 doctors and hospitals across the country who all have urgent needs for PPE. I will let her coordinate with you what the best way to allocate supply and hopefully you guys can close this gap sooner rather than later.

Best,
