Jeremy,

I mentioned this to Matt... Two areas for discussion from our view would be:

1. Goods received by PHAC – my dept is frustrated that unless we are bringing things in on our own plane, we don't have a window into what PHAC is receiving from other orders and are having real trouble getting that information. My boss likely to raise this tonight.
2. Test kits – This might be better tabled to another opportunity, but I think we need to dig into our testing strategy, where we are at in approvals for rapid test kits and supply thereof.
