Hi Matt - Following up on this. Will stand down on this one after tonight, given how quickly these updates change.

For JT Twitter.

Now, simple text post.

I wanted to share an update on testing: Fredericton's @LuminUltra is ramping up production to meet the weekly demand for test chemicals across the country. And in the past few days, we received a new batch of swabs to make sure every province has what they need to keep testing.

Du nouveau sur les tests:
@LuminUltra de Fredericton augmente sa cadence de production afin de fournir assez de produits chimiques pour faire les tests chaque semaine au pays. Et ces derniers jours, on a reçu des écouvillons pour que les provinces puissent continuer à tester.
