Hello M. Julien,

Thank you for your kind email offering support.

As you may know, the Federal government has created a Portal for Canadian businesses to apply for contracts of their products during the COVID-19 crisis. We are seeing a large volume of suppliers submit their applications and our team of procurement specialists is working hard to triage the applications as they come in.

I would be happy to pass along your email for their consideration. They will reach out to you if they feel that your service can be of use.

Thank you again for your support.

Sincerely,

Chelsea Kusnick

Mrs Anand,

I am sure your schedule is very busy! Thank you for reading my email. I will be brief.

We have set up for the Quebec Health dept a web page in order to prequalify suppliers that are able to support the actual situation. This web tool has increased the efficiency of the Québec government supply group, allowing it to focus on qualified suppliers.

We are confident that this tool could be useful to the people of PSPC. Who should we talk to ?

Thank you
