Sounds good. Might also be helpful to do this in a google doc given the VPN issues today (and the info is not secret)

I think it makes sense to divide this across the team.

For Canada Post, for example, I've had conflicts so haven't been able to call in and get the most up-to-date info recently.

My afternoon is filling up, but I can try and take the ones that don't have a natural file lead from our team.

Hi Kelly,

Instead of the due diligence, could I ask you to take a first stab at these questions this afternoon? Just discussed with Elliott and he says that we can't expect timely drafts from the Department so we need to draft ourselves.

If possible, it would be great if you could send me a first version (even if there are gaps) by ~7:30 pm so that I can go through it tonight. I'm sure we would need to ask for Caitlin's input, too.

Is that OK?

Thanks,
Boyan

Hi Boyan,

I've attached some potential questions we've drafted for a likely appearance by the Minister at OGGO. Can you work with your team to get the responses to these questions?

We would like them by End of Day Friday if that works for you.

Let me know if you have any questions or concerns.

Thank you!

Chelsea
