Hello Jean-Luc,

Thanks again for your cooperation.

I also pointed this out to FM 93 over the weekend and to Radio-Canada yesterday (report to come later).

I'm reaching out to you once again, but this time about medical equipment.

A friend of mine, Dany Gagnon, VP of Chrono Aviation, is ready to pick up 3M masks and asked me who to talk to.

I thought of you.

You can reach him at

Many thanks

PS: Here is a copy of his message:

Listen, I'm throwing you a line. I have access to 3 million KN95 masks with my Airbus 340 coming back next week.

I don't know if the government is still looking for products or if they have enough. I don't have any contacts, so I'm just throwing it out there in case you think anyone might be interested.

We're already bringing in several million for a private client, but I have an option for another 3 million...
