It is very important to specify that it is Amazon Canada. It is not exactly a foreign company. It is a Canadian company that works with other Canadian companies. All three companies are providing these services at cost, without making a profit.

It's at cost, without profit, and they're all Canadian companies. Amazon Canada is a Canadian company.

Is there anything else?

She may have clarified it in the house but the blues are not up yet. Checking with what hugo sent.
