Madison if you could reach out to Ashton and get more details, it would be helpful.

I'd really rather not direct someone willing to donate supplies (especially ventilators) to the BuyandSell website.

Dropping Ashton. Adding Caitlin.

Should we still recommend registering on buyandsell? I am not sure how flexible the application is for this kind of request. I will wait until we are given a contact email for the procurement team we can use.

Hello Joel,

Reaching out on behalf of one of our clients who is in a unique position to assist with ventilators, hospital beds, and masks (need to check on the last one). Is there somebody I can put them in touch with to get the ball rolling? To be clear, this would be a donation – we are not looking for any contract to procure or execute. The key issue here is that they will likely be shipping these around from foreign jurisdictions and therefore there are likely some logistical items to hammer out.

Best,

Ashton
