James,

Bryan may have other feedback, but I would suggest an edit to the opening text. In particular, rounding down the safe restart agreement investment may not be well received. Also, we may want to talk about the overall envelope (greater than 6B) as opposed to the actual spend so that future updates don’t come across as exceeding our budget. Also, this is consistent with Bill’s testimony at committee.

Hi there ,

Here is the page with the Minister’s mark-ups.

We understand the Maple Leaf icon looks unlikely for today – so we can circle back on that one. The rest is really just text edits

Importance: High

James,

Based on feedback provided by the Minister, we've adjusted the attached (primarily the intro narrative text and the inclusion of a domestic manufacturing table). There is still some fine tuning happening with certain contract values, but this is largely final. To note, if we want to push this live tomorrow, it would be helpful to lock this content down today.
