Merci James,

Bryan and his team will look into this for you as soon as they can – answers will most-likely come tomorrow.

FYI that DMO asked that we see if we can say something about the 3D printed swabs.

Merci,
Lucie

Thank you!

That was great. Some revisions attached – including some substantive points that we need to verify.

Most notably:

3M's N95s (this is based on the approved language from the May 18th update)

Number of flights that will have arrived by Tuesday morning

Number and rough schedule of the ships transporting hand sanitizer

Can we mention the BD contract for syringes?

I'm sure there are more tweaks coming – but wanted to give folks a head start on the substantive points.

Thanks!
James
