Hi,

There is no additional translation in this version. It looks like the same version I sent.
Re-attaching for reference.

Good evening,

As requested, here is the revised podium version of the Minister's remarks for tomorrow's presser. It includes the additional translation, and face shield companies.

You may have to remove this sentence as we have not yet been able to confirm amount of litres: "Later this week, the first ship to transport XX litres of hand sanitizer is scheduled to arrive at the Port of Vancouver."

May we consider this version quasi-final enough to share with PHAC so they can distribute to interpreters?

Thank you.

Revisions attached.

Any chance of getting the translated parts back in about an hour...?
Would like to get printed version to the Min for this evening.

Thanks,
James

Good afternoon,

Please find attached the revised remarks, which include DMO's suggestions, your changes and requested additional translation. All information has been fact checked and adjusted where necessary. We are waiting on two confirmations, which are highlighted in the document.

Please note that program confirmed the following: we are not ready to announce the 3D printing swabs yet, we can mention Wazana, and we are flagging to PriMED that we will mention them. PriMED had previously agreed to being mentioned.

Please provide your second round of comments using this version, if possible.

Thank you,
