Adding Thierry as I am not sure.

Thierry any sense of when the 2nd serological test approval will be public knowledge?

Hi Cameron,

I just got confirmation from Thierry that the vaccine clinical trials will not be ready for the PM to mention in tomorrow's remarks, but the second serological testing approval would be.

Personally, I think it would be best to bundle the two if we want the PM to mention it, so I would recommend removing both from tomorrow's remarks.
