Adding Stickney here again. Is the PPE imports piece mission critical for tomorrow's ag announcement? Wouldn't it be better on its own?

ISED and PSPC were not aware this was happening until one hour ago. Preference is to hold this and save it for a broader PPE update – a lot of stuff needs to happen first from their end, but if its mission critical for tomorrow, they can endeavor to get that done.

Also, this is not right: "This will [...] complement recent efforts to increase domestic production of PPE for Canadian industry, including food producers." We are not producing PPE for non-healthcare workers. Can we just say "This will [...] complement our efforts to increase domestic production of PPE."? Is that ok?

Please also use this attached copy and track any changes, otherwise version control will begin to be a challenge with this many adaptations. You can also just reply to the chain with edits and I will capture them here.

I will try to tack down the backgrounder to circulate.

Sorry I did not track
A few more slight edits in attached.

You are correct, Zoe, provinces need to sign off on these changes to AgStab and AgInsurance, which is why we have to preface them with "working with..."
The change to AgStability has already been enacted by a couple of provinces .

Edits (I used Oli's version).

We need clarity on these two items:

"Increasing interim payments from 50 per cent to 75 per cent through AgriStability, a federal, provincial and territorial program that supports producers that face significant revenue declines."

....I thought this did not happen?)

"Working with provinces and territories to expand the AgriInsurance program to include labour shortages as eligible risks. This will ensure the income lost by producers because of an insufficient workforce will be taken into account through their program payments."

...I'm not sure we can say that without first agreeing with provinces... can we?
