It's $4.05B to support PPE and medical supply purchase. Supports a few things we have announced already (ventilators), but also a bunch of stuff we haven't. And the number isn't known, as PM only just got the decision note last week (I actually don't know that he has signed it btw). So it's a chance for us to say publicly a new spend.

Astrid, Parker has the Finance decision note which has background – I can share with you in a bit as well.

Adding Rick. PM approved a note last week I believe to buy more for the stockpile.

Hello Astrid!

No new updates from what I had copied you on yesterday.

I will re-flip!!

Hi all,

Does anyone have info on the big procurement update for tomorrow that we're going to announce in the PM remarks?

Thanks!
