Hi Cam,

Good news story out of BC: <https://www.google.ca/amp/s/vancouver.sun.com/news/local-news/covid-19-coquitlam-company-retools-will-be-first-in-canada-to-produce-n95-respirators/wcm/fe108057-63db-4dfe-835a-b625afa4aea5/amp/>

Novo Textiles from Coquitlam BC has retooled to produce N95 respirators/masks. They ordered 2 automated mask production machines for $600,000. CEO is Jason Zanatta. He took action after the PM's call to action which is referenced in the article.

We haven't given him any funding or put in an order yet so not sure if it makes sense to give him a shout out yet (PSPC will flag when we do), but flagging for future speeches.
