Thanks! May I suggest that he say “continues to have” rather than “has” in order to show that it’s about continuity of supply through the next phases of the pandemic?

Minister Anand’s remarks indicate that, so this wording work ok as is as well.

Hi Emily H.,

For your awareness, this is the current language we have for the speech tomorrow:

Later today, Minister Anand will announce the details of a new COVID-19 Supply Council. This council will be tasked with finding innovative solutions to ensure our country has the vital supplies to keep Canadians safe.

Thanks Emily! We spoke –

Hearing that discussions are still ongoing, so we will hold for an update from policy/appointments about those last two members. If not finalized and there are still outstanding questions, we will postpone this announcement (not proceed tomorrow) or possibly go with NR only and not backgrounder.

Please keep us posted so Astrid can finalize remarks asap.

Thanks,
ET

Just finalizing a BKG that my pre-coffee eyes didn't register. We are two members down as you'll see from tracked changes – not anticipating that we will have them replaced by tomorrow, but could add in future.

Thanks,
Emily

Adding Astrid who's working on PM remarks for tomorrow and will include a few lines. (assuming we're all squared away!)

Thank you!

So not announcing the membership I see. Appointments had flagged that the last member had not been finalized as of mid-day yesterday. Do you know if that's happened yet, or not an issue because we are just talking about the framework here?
