Flagging the tweet below Farees found. I've sent to the Ambassador but essentially it links to an order saying that any PPE leaving the country has to be signed off by the director of FEMA. Have asked for a sense of validity and implications. It's not supposed to come in to affect until the 10th.

So that Trump PPE export restriction saga with 3M? The one that seemed like a thing on Friday, but then last night didn't seem like a thing?

Apparently it's a thing.

There's a Federal Register notice for a FEMA temporary final rule...
