Subject: FLAG/Update - Supply flight landed in Toronto this AM

Hello—Flag on a new delivery and language below:

We can confirm that the flight coming in from China has landed in Toronto this morning, expected to contain millions of surgical masks as well as the orders made directly by Quebec and Nova Scotia.

The goods are being received, assessed by PHAC and then will be distributed as soon as possible through the new arrangement with Amazon and Canada Post to the provinces (lead by PHAC).
