Hi Geoff,

Thank you for reaching about your interest to be a potential supplier or individual with helpful information on the COVID-19 response. As an organization that seeks to provide products and services, I invite you to explore this website: <https://buyandsell.gc.ca/calling-all-suppliers-help-canada-combat-covid-19>. As this website will continue to be updated, I would encourage you to check back for new information that may be posted.

Hi Anita,

We're a 3D metal printing company that helps companies retool their manufacturing facilities literally overnight. If you have companies in mind looking to retool to produce the required healthcare supplies, I'd be happy to chat.

Hope you're staying healthy and keeping your family safe.
