Hi Anita Good Morning!

I hope this email finds you well.

I have been supplying essential PPE equipment to the UK government and I wanted to reach out to the Canadian government to see if it needed any more supplies for the same. We have millions of Gloves available in Germany and the FFP3s come from France and have supplied to the UK government.

In addition we have other equipment like surgical gowns and aprons etc. If you send me a list of items required I will send all the necessary certifications and stock and lead time with price. Please do help point me in the right direction if this email has come to you in error.

Kind regards
Vanita

Kind Regards,

Vanita Badlani
