Good morning Chelsea,

We have yet to heard back from anyone at the government but I wanted to provide a project status update.

We are now working in collaboration with the MUHC (McGill University Health Centre).

Our project was discussed by their Board of Directors and has become a priority. We are working on sourcing components and building the first few units for the hospital to test with.

We are hoping for federal funding and/or support on this project to help expedite the development process and get these testing at the hospital ASAP.

Thanks,

Roberto Panetta
