Dear Ms, Kusnick, thank you for your email, I've shared your email and I was told that BYD is presently overwhelmed by US demand. So probably better to forget this option for now. My apologies for the inconvenience.

In any case, congratulations to all the people in your minister to have secured the supply of 230 million masks and 30 000 ventilators, that's very impressive.

Sincerely,

Jean-François

Dear Anna and Ian, hope you are doing well considering all thing. If it may help I know, Li Lu of Himalaya Captial, who's the biggest investor in BYD (China's biggest mask factory). He usually answers my texts in a few minutes. BYD is now producing 15 million masks a day, scaling to 30 masks a day, amongst other things they have a supply 100millions to Italians on the frontline.

Costco order 70 million masks for their employees and members to wear in store. But if we ask them to use it for Canadians frontline workers we may have them in priority over Costco, the first delivery is expected in 2 weeks. If you think it might be of interest, Mr. Trudeau or anyone in his team can reach me anytime at P [REDACTED]

Best.

Reed Hastings Li Lu: when do you expect these on the shelves at Costco? week, month, quarter or year from now?

Li Lu Reed Hastings the order is fir 70 plus millions deliver iver the next month or so. Firstbshipment in two weeks or so. But they are for members entering into stores (for free i believe), not for sales in stores initially.
