Just an initial quick change - is it possible to add my email to the contact info section at the end of the document?

Thanks so much,

Bonsoir,

Please find attached for your approval, the news release to launch the Supply Hub tomorrow.

SUBJECT: The Government of Canada launches a personal protective equipment supply hub webpage.

WHY (CONTEXT): As more businesses, not-for-profit and other organizations re-open, they need reliable information on selling and buying the PPE required to keep workers and clients safe. While there are numerous sources of information available online, there is no single location for both suppliers and buyers to access available information.
